

ANNAN WALKING GROUP

WALK 125

24th JANUARY 2009

Annan Shore Walk

Distance	5 miles
Time	About 3 hours
Walk description	As it will be on the day before the 250 th anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, the walk is to take in the Burns cairn at Waterfoot, which Burns described as 'this wild place of the world'. Hopefully it won't seem so bad on the 24 th , depending on the weather. Do be prepared for it being damp underfoot in parts. Much of the walking is on firm paths; some requires picking your way carefully, but there is little in the way of gradients.
Travel/ Walk start	Walk starts from Murray 81. car park 9.30 am.
Refreshments	Bring own drink and snacks.
Equipment	Boots. Wind- and water-proof gear.
Toilets	Al fresco.
Dogs	OK for dogs.
Walk Leader	Liz and Ed Hudson 01461 203481
