

ANNAN WALKING GROUP

WALK 131

SATURDAY ·25 APRIL 2009

Kirkcudbright Bay

Distance	7 miles / 11 km.
Walk Time	3.5 to 4.0 hours.
Walk Description	An easy walk but perhaps moderate because of its length. From Mutehill along the eastern shore of the Bay, passing the Lifeboat Station then gradually rising some 60 or 70 feet to the cliff top overlooking Little Ross Island. From there we follow the cliff top to Torrs Point and lunch (some 1.5 hours from the start). We then head inland either over the Dundrennan Gunnery Range (red flags permitting) or by field paths to reach a minor road which we follow for a couple of miles before cutting back past the Grange to the shore and Mutehill.
Travel	Murray Street car park at 9.30 a.m. Mini bus available for 16 passengers. From Annan a 45 mile (65 to 70 minute) trip first on the A 75 then turning left onto the A 711 for Kirkcudbright some two miles beyond Castle Douglas. Drive through Kirkcudbright still on the A 711 to Mutehill (approx. 2 miles). Limited off road car parking at Mutehill but alternative arrangements have been made with Mutehill Garden Nursery. H you are travelling direct please call the Walk Leader beforehand to discuss Parkin!!.
Walk Starting Point	10.45 a.m. on rough ground pull-in 20 yards along minor road to the right off A711 at Mutehill. Toilets al-fresco. Please note the only Public Toilets in Kirkcudbright are next to the Tourist Information but at time of writin2 are out of commission.
Walkers Dogs	Dogs on lead okay but remember we cannot take them on the ATI bus.
Refreshments	Bring lunch and drinks.
Equipment	Walking boots and waterproofs. Sun tan cream may be advisable!! Bring your binoculars.

Everyone is welcome. You can turn up on the day but advance notice is always helpful. For further information please phone the walk leader, Roderick McCallum on (01461) 202104.
