

Annan Walking Group

Walk 144

Mount Annan

Sunday 8th November 2009

This route follows the River Annan and traverses Mount Annan estate. Red squirrel and roe deer frequent the woodland but a sighting cannot be guaranteed!

The Queensberry Hotel Restaurant has been booked for a meal at about 4.00pm. The cost is £6.50 for a main course, (Fish, steak pie or roast) and a sweet. With coffee or tea £7.25. Additional family members or friends would be welcome to join us for the meal

Could members please let me know at the beginning of the walk at Brydekirk if they wish to have the meal. This will allow me to advise the Queensberry Hotel.

•
Aroximate distance	Just over 3.0 Miles
Aroximate length. Walk description	About 2.00 Hours, to be completed before dark. On woodland paths with some short gradients. . Some tracks are muddy and covered by fallen leaves and care is required.
Do s on leads lease	Horses and livestock graze in adjacent fields.
Annan meeting point	Murray Street car park Annan at 1.30pm The 16 seat minibus will be available.
Travel route	From Annan take the B723 towards Lockerbie. Proceed for two miles. Brydekirk is signposted to the right on a minor road.
oint	Outside the Brig Inn Brydekirk at 1.45 pm
Walk starting p	On street Parking near the Brig Inn Brydekirk . .
Car parking	The Bri Inn is open all day.
Toilets	Usual walking gear and waterproofs.
Equipment

If you require further information, phone the Walk Coordinator Jim Hawkins at (01461) 203162