

Annan Walking Group
Walk 190
Up the Jubilee
Sunday 13th November 2011

As this is Remembrance Sunday our walk starts later than usual. The route is short to enable the walk to be completed before darkening. The circular route follows the River Annan from Annan High Street to the Jubilee Suspension Bridge, and returns to Annan.

~ The Queensberry Hotel Restaurant has been booked for a meal at about 4.00pm. The cost is £8.25 for a main course, (The Carvery, the choice of three roast meats, haddock, or vegetable lasagne). A choice of sweets, followed by coffee or tea. Additional family members or friends would be welcome to join us for the meal

Could members please let me know at the beginning of the walk if they wish to have the meal. This will allow me to advise the Queensberry Hotel.
