

ANNAN WALKING GROUP – WALK 525

SUNDAY 13th SEPTEMBER 2026

DUMFRIES RIVER NITH

|                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|----------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Walk Leader(s)             | Sue Kirkhope (07802 717620)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                            | Approx. 5 miles                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Walk Time                  | Approx. 3 - 4 hours.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Walk Description           | Circular walk along the river Nith, Maxwelltown Railway Path and fields Predominately a flat walk but a few downward uneven steps (walking poles recommended)                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Travel                     | Take the A75 to Dumfries ,at the first roundabout take the first left onto Annan road A780. At the third mini roundabout take the first left onto Brooms road A756 .continue on the A756 until you reach the traffic lights at St Michael's Bridge, turn left into Dock Park.Mini-bus available for 16 passengers.Murray Street car park at 9.30 a.m. |
|                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Walk Start Point / Toilets | Start Point – 10.15 a.m. Dock Park – by cafeGrid Ref :- NX 975754What 3 Words :- pizza.graphics.rejoinsNearest Post Code :- DG1 2RYToilets – On Whitesands                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Dogs                       | Dogs on lead in own car.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Refreshments               | Bring snacks, lunch and drinks.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Equipment                  | Usual outdoor gear for time of year. Sticks recommended if you use them.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |